Dear Bill:

I have your good letter of February 2, 1956, and I can assure you that I will assign to your staff, a first-class man from this Agency. I have a list before me of suggested candidates, and I think I will await the final choice until I can have a word with you, so as to be sure that I am most appropriately filling the particular needs of the job. Once we have together made a choice, there will be no delay in the procedure of transfer.

Needless to say, I am looking forward with keen interest to your arrival here. There are plenty of problems, and no one better than you is in a position to tackle them.

I thoroughly agree with the outline of the job as given in your letter to Sherm, and certainly you can count on our complete cooperation.

I hope that Mary and you are having a good holiday.

Sincerely,
